Virginia-based ‘Young Moving and Storage’ relocates its operations to the Richmond area to focus on Residential and Corporate moving services.

Richmond, Va. (May 17, 2010) – Young Moving and Storage, a leading United Van Lines agent in Virginia, is excited to announce the company has relocated its operations to the Richmond, Virginia area. Since 1947, Young Moving and Storage has been a Virginia-based company located in Lynchburg, Virginia. As of May 2010, Young Moving and Storage will be the newest United Van Lines moving and storage agent in Richmond serving residential, corporate, military and international relocation customers.

For over 63 years, Young Moving and Storage has been treating customers like they are part of the family. Whether it’s moving down the block, across the country or around the world, Young focuses on outstanding customer service through the entire moving process. The Young Moving and Storage Company’s move to Richmond continues to show the incredible growth of the family-owned organization. Young has added 12 new employees to the company and plans hire additional staff this year. The company provides certified moving professionals and employees that have undergone stringent background checks. In addition to the new employees, the company is also adding three new moving trucks to their fleet to serve the Richmond market.

“We are very excited to be part of the vibrant and growing Richmond community. Our goal is to be the best company in our industry today and tomorrow”, said Frank A. Young III, President of Young Moving and Storage. “Throughout our history, we have consistently strived for total customer satisfaction and that’s what we will continue giving our all customers in Richmond.”

About Young Moving and Storage:

Young Moving & Storage was founded in Lynchburg, Virginia in 1947 by Frank A. Young Jr. The mission of the company is to show that moving household goods is a highly personal service deserving the utmost attention to planning, detail and thorough execution. The Young family has extended Mr. Young’s philosophy and passion for customer service to all of their service offerings. As a result, Young Moving & Storage has grown to provide not only household moving and storage services but also corporate employee relocations and specialized transportation services for customers and government agencies worldwide.
